My dear Mr Jennan

I have seen in the Newspapers that the English Government has presented in the House of Commons a Bill for the reduction of the interests of 3 per cent Consols to 2½, reembolsing the creditor at par, or giving them the option to take Consols at a rate of 102 per cent, not reembolsable till the year 1905

As you know that my money is in trust, in the Court of Chancery, I am anxious to know if my interests will be in any way affected by these new arrangements, and what it behoves me to do

Believe me to remain

Yours very sincerely
